Assignment Due Dates:

Type of Performance and Evaluation Criteria: You will be required to complete seven activities in order to achieve the identified objectives. Details are located in the course site. Contact the instructor if you have any questions.

1. CHAPTER PRESENTATION

Prior to the first day of class, students will be randomly divided into groups. You will be able to view your group assignment in the Groups area on the main course menu. Each group will be assigned a chapter to present to the class as during live chat, beginning in Week 3. Each group will decide how they are going to present the chapter. The presentation should be engaging, interactive with the class and with each other, and involve the group's personal opinions on the material. The presentation should last about 30 minutes. IMPORTANT: You will work in the same groups for both the Chapter Presentation and the Group Project to Prepare for a Foreign Assignment.

NOTE: You will evaluate the contribution and involvement of yourself and other group members using the Self-Peer Evaluation Form. Students who do not submit an evaluation of all members in the group will not receive participation points in this project. Submit self/peer evaluation after your group presentation. You will be evaluating the TOTAL participation of your fellow group members, including the chapter presentation work and the Group Project to Prepare for a Foreign Assignment work. Please note that depending on the perceptions of other team members, it's possible that different group members in the same group could receive different scores.

2. DISCUSSION BOARDS

There are four forums (25 points each). Students are expected to write their initial post no later than Wednesday of the week of the forum, and respond to two colleagues' posts by the end of the week. Primary posts must be a minimum of 200 words. Reply posts can be shorter.

3. COLLABORATE CHATS

Students are expected to participate in at least four of the scheduled live chat virtual sessions (25 points each). Participation is demonstrated by active involvement in the discussions, not mere attendance.

4. PERSONAL ROADMAP FOR DIVERSITY MANAGEMENT IN YOUR CAREER

Develop a paper that identifies what you feel are your strengths and weaknesses, as well as areas you want/need to learn more about for improvement, in regards to diversity management skills/assets that will position you for success in the working environment. (3-4 pages). Assignments must be submitted in .docx, .doc or .pdf format in order to receive credit.

5. MIDTERM EXAMINATION

You will answer essay questions.

6. GROUP PROJECT TO PREPARE FOR A FOREIGN ASSIGNMENT

Your organization has given your team the task of preparing employees in your company for success working in a foreign country. Your team will determine which foreign country you will choose, subject to approval by the instructor. Items to address will include the country's:

- A. Hierarchy and decision-making processes;
- B. Types of conflicts that may be encountered;
- C. Preferred managerial qualities;
- D. Privileges and/or favoritism as it relates to sex, religion, class, or status;
- E. Ethnicity and gender issues;
- F. Customs that may have an impact on the organization's way of doing business;
- G. Particular behaviors to avoid.

Develop a 4-5 page paper, and be prepared to lead a discussion with the class during Week 7 live chat virtual session. The written portion of the assignment must be submitted in .docx, .doc or .pdf format in order to receive credit. Each student in the group should submit a copy of the written paper, with all of the group members' names on it.

IMPORTANT: You will work in the same groups for both the Chapter Presentation and the Group Project to Prepare for a Foreign Assignment.

NOTE: Before submitting a final version of the written paper for grading, you MUST submit a draft copy to the Writing Center at <https://www.cmich.edu/colleges/chsbs/Centers/WritingCenter/Pages/default.aspx> for comments. You will e-mail your draft to them at: writcent@cmich.edu and then revise the paper when you receive the comments.

Each group will be given a group discussion board and a file exchange area for the project. You may also use the Blackboard Collaborate classroom if your group would like to have a virtual group meeting.

7. FINAL PERSONAL INTERVIEW PAPER

This is an individual assignment. Conduct an interview with someone from a different culture or ethnicity than yours. This can be almost any individual, but it cannot be someone from the class. In that interview, explore that individual's thoughts and experiences relating to the class material. Find out things such as challenges they have faced, obstacles they may have had to overcome, or other areas of inquiry.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Obtain approval of who you are going to interview from the instructor by the third week of class, and submit your interview questions prior to conducting the interview. This paper is due no later than the last night of class. Assignments must be submitted in .docx, .doc or .pdf format in order to receive credit.
