Blackboard:
Blackboard is a web-based learning management system licensed by CMU. Within Blackboard, a course website, also known as a shell, is automatically created for every CMU course. Face-to-face courses may or may not incorporate Blackboard, whereas Blackboard course shells are always used for online courses and will be available to you prior to the course start date. Seeing the course shell listed in Blackboard with unavailable adjacent to its title is an indication that your instructor has not made it available and is in no way indicative of registration status. To access Blackboard, open a web browser and enter https://blackboard.cmich.edu/webapps/login/. After the site loads, enter your CMU Global ID and password in the respective spaces provided. Click the "login" button to enter Blackboard and then the link to the appropriate course to enter the course's Blackboard shell. If you need assistance, contact the IT Helpdesk at 989-774-3662 / 800-950-1144 x. 3662. Self-guided student tutorial resources are also available at https://blackboard.cmich.edu/webapps/login/.

Assignment Due Dates:

Assignment Due Dates:
Type of Performance and Evaluation Criteria: You will be required to complete seven activities in order to achieve the identified objectives. Details are located in the course site. Contact the instructor if you have any questions.

1. CHAPTER PRESENTATION
Prior to the first day of class, students will be randomly divided into groups. You will be able to view your group assignment in the Groups area on the main course menu. Each group will be assigned a chapter to present to the class as during live chat, beginning in Week 3. Each group will decide how they are going to present the chapter. The presentation should be engaging, interactive with the class and with each other, and involve the group’s personal opinions on the material. The presentation should last about 30 minutes. IMPORTANT: You will work in the same groups for both the Chapter Presentation and the Group Project to Prepare for a Foreign Assignment.

NOTE: You will evaluate the contribution and involvement of yourself and other group members using the Self-Peer Evaluation Form. Students who do not submit an evaluation of all members in the group will not receive participation points in this project. Submit self/peer evaluation after your group presentation. You will be evaluating the TOTAL participation of your fellow group members, including the chapter presentation work and the Group Project to Prepare for a Foreign Assignment work. Please note that depending on the perceptions of other team members, it's possible that different group members in the same group could receive different scores.

2. DISCUSSION BOARDS
There are four forums (25 points each). Students are expected to write their initial post no later than Wednesday of the week of the forum, and respond to two colleagues’ posts by the end of the week. Primary posts must be a minimum of 200 words. Reply posts can be shorter.

3. COLLABORATE CHATS
Students are expected to participate in at least four of the scheduled live chat virtual sessions (25 points each). Participation is demonstrated by active involvement in the discussions, not mere attendance.

4. PERSONAL ROADMAP FOR DIVERSITY MANAGEMENT IN YOUR CAREER
Develop a paper that identifies what you feel are your strengths and weaknesses, as well as areas you want/need to learn more about for improvement, in regards to diversity management skills/assets that will position you for success in the working environment. (3-4 pages). Assignments must be submitted in .docx, .doc or .pdf format in order to receive credit.

5. MIDTERM EXAMINATION
You will answer essay questions.

6. GROUP PROJECT TO PREPARE FOR A FOREIGN ASSIGNMENT
Your organization has given your team the task of preparing employees in your company for success working in a foreign country. Your team will determine which foreign country you will choose, subject to approval by the instructor. Items to address will include the country’s:
A. Hierarchy and decision-making processes;
B. Types of conflicts that may be encountered;
C. Preferred managerial qualities;
D. Privileges and/or favoritism as it relates to sex, religion, class, or status;
E. Ethnicity and gender issues;
F. Customs that may have an impact on the organization’s way of doing business;
G. Particular behaviors to avoid.

Develop a 4-5 page paper, and be prepared to lead a discussion with the class during Week 7 live chat virtual session. the written portion of the assignment must be submitted in .docx, .doc or .pdf format in order to receive credit. Each student in the group should submit a copy of the written paper, with all of the group members' names on it.

IMPORTANT: You will work in the same groups for both the Chapter Presentation and the Group Project to Prepare for a Foreign Assignment.

NOTE: Before submitting a final version of the written paper for grading, you MUST submit a draft copy to the Writing Center at https://www.cmich.edu/colleges/chsbs/Centers/WritingCenter/Pages/default.aspx for comments. You will e-mail your draft to them at: writcent@cmich.edu and then revise the paper when you receive the comments.

Each group will be given a group discussion board and a file exchange area for the project. You may also use the Blackboard Collaborate classroom if your group would like to have a virtual group meeting.
7. FINAL PERSONAL INTERVIEW PAPER
This is an individual assignment. Conduct an interview with someone from a different culture or ethnicity than yours. This can be almost any individual, but it cannot be someone from the class. In that interview, explore that individual’s thoughts and experiences relating to the class material. Find out things such as challenges they have faced, obstacles they may have had to overcome, or other areas of inquiry.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Obtain approval of who you are going to interview from the instructor by the third week of class, and submit your interview questions prior to conducting the interview. This paper is due no later than the last night of class. Assignments must be submitted in .docx, .doc or .pdf format in order to receive credit.

Post-Class Assignment:
None

Student Involvement Hours:
Minimum 40 hours

- You are responsible for ensuring assignments are submitted on time and that your submission is received.
- Assignment submission is via the Assignment section on the Blackboard.
- Verification of assignment submission is an exclamation mark (!) in respective assignment area in Gradebook.
- Submissions must be in MS Word or PDF in order to receive credit.
- Exams must be taken within the schedule window identified above.
- Scores will be posted on the website under Gradebook--if a score is missing or entered incorrectly let me know. You should review your grades at least once a week.
- If you foresee difficulty of any type (i.e., an illness, employment change, etc.) which may prevent completion of this course, notify the instructor as soon as possible.

NOTE: If I have not heard from you by the deadline dates for assignments, exams or forums, no make-up work will be allowed (unless extraordinary circumstances existed, such as hospitalization or documented military orders). Requests for extensions must be made in advance and accompanied by appropriate written documentation.

Make-ups and Rewrites:
There will be no extra-credit assignments or extra-credit work accepted at any time during this course, unless specifically approved by the professor.

VIII. EXPECTATIONS

Attendance and Participation:
Regular logins, interaction via Blackboard, and participation in all interactive learning activities are expected.

Academic Integrity:

Because academic integrity is a cornerstone of the University's commitment to the principles of free inquiry, students are responsible for learning and upholding professional standards of research, writing, assessment, and ethics in their areas of study. Written or other work which students submit must be the product of their own efforts and must be consistent with appropriate standards of professional ethics. Academic dishonesty, which includes cheating, plagiarism and other forms of dishonest or unethical behavior, is prohibited. A breakdown of behaviors that constitute academic dishonesty is presented in the CMU Bulletin (https://bulletins.cmich.edu/).

Student Rights and Responsibilities:

Each member of the Central Michigan University community assumes an obligation regarding self conduct to act in a manner consistent with a respect for the rights of others and with the University's function as an educational institution. As guides for individual and group actions within this community, the University affirms the general principles of conduct described in the Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities and Disciplinary Procedures at https://www.cmich.edu/ess/studentaffairs/Pages/Code-of-Student-Rights.aspx.

IX. SUPPORT SERVICES AND OTHER REQUIREMENTS

Library Research and Instruction Services
As a CMU student you have full access to the services and resources of the CMU Library. Reference librarians will help you find information on your research topic and answer other questions related to the library. The library's Documents on Demand office will obtain copies of the books and journal articles for you. Check out the library's website at https://library.cmich.edu for more information.

Veterans Resource Center & PAVE: Peer Advisors for Veteran Education (PAVE) Program is a peer support program that connects incoming student veterans with student veterans already attending CMU in order to help them navigate college life, identify challenges they are facing, refer them to the appropriate resource on or off campus, and provide ongoing support to their academic and personal goals. Please refer to the contact information below if you have any questions about PAVE: Veterans’ Resource Center (114 Warriner Hall; telephone 989-774-7991, veterans@cmich.edu).

CMU CARES: CMU adheres to Core Values of integrity, respect, compassion, inclusiveness, social responsibility, excellence, and innovation. We deeply care about the health, well-being, safety, and success of our students and our employees. More information is available on the CMU Cares website.

Harassment and discrimination: You have a right to feel safe and supported while pursuing your degree at CMU. If any professor, student, or staff member makes you feel that you have been discriminated against, disrespected or stuck in a hostile environment, the Office of Civil Rights and Institutional Equity (OCRIE) is here to help: Bovee UC 306, (989) 774-3253. For resources and more information, please see https://www.cmich.edu/office_president/OCRIE/

Sexual misconduct policy: With the exception of the confidential resources named explicitly within the Sexual Misconduct
Policy, all CMU staff and faculty are responsible employees and are required to report any information they know about possible sexual misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator in OCRIE at (989) 774-3253. This means that any information you may divulge about such an incident in the classroom or with a faculty member cannot be confidential. Reports to OCRIE are intended to provide options and resources to survivors. Please keep these reporting obligations in mind as you seek support from staff and faculty you trust, and know that there are also support centers on campus that will maintain confidentiality, which include Sexual Aggression Peer Advocates (989-774-2255) and the CMU Counseling Center (989-774-3381). For resources and more information, please see https://www.cmich.edu/office_president/OCRIE/
